AWARD OF EXCELLENCE: DESIGN CONSTRUCTED
The Cleveland Clinic Foundation Vail Garden, Cleveland, Ohio
NBBJ // Columbus, Ohio // nbbj.com
The Vail Garden is about beauty and simplicity. Its abstract qualities blend the power of art, architecture and landscape. Iris and Thomas Vail challenged the team to create a garden that acts as art while providing visual respite to each of the 10,000 daily visitors to the Cleveland Clinic.

HONORABLE MENTION
Planning + Analysis

STUDENT
Honor Award
10. Bike Box | Living Roof Lab. Students of Kent State University // Cleveland, Ohio

Merit Award
12. Novel Ecologies: Spontaneous Urban Plants. Students of Landscape Architecture Course 3189/7189: Novel Ecologies at Knowlton School of Architecture // Columbus, Ohio

HONOR AWARD: PLANNING + ANALYSIS
Drinking Water Protection Plan for the Upper Cuyahoga River Watershed, Akron, Ohio
Environmental Design Group // Akron, Ohio // envdesigngroup.com
The Drinking Water Protection Plan for the Upper Cuyahoga River Watershed provides the City of Akron with a comprehensive analysis and vision of stewardship for a watershed that serves 300,000 people with clean drinking water.

ASLA, in informal collaboration with the International Federation of Landscape Architects, is excited to unveil World Landscape Architecture Month (WLAM) in April 2015. Formerly National Landscape Architecture Month, WLAM celebrates landscape architecture by reaching out within communities while, this year, also connecting each of ASLA’s 49 chapters to a different member organizations of IFLA to spread the profession across the globe. For more information, visit: asla.org/wlam.